

Can't Walk Away

Sometimes, you're just hooked.

*For some crazy reason, I just can't walk away
I should be leaving, but I don't know how
For some crazy reason, I can't walk away from you now*

*It's two o'clock in the morning, but I'm still here anyway
Without a clue - without a warning - I'm thinking out loud
For some crazy reason I can't walk away from you now*

*It was something you said that stuck in my head
Now, I'm standing outside of your door
I don't mean to be cruel - I feel just like a fool because I can't help but come back for more*

*For some crazy reason, I just can't walk away
I should be leaving, but I don't know how
For some crazy reason, I can't walk away from you now*

*I hope I'm not wrong, but there's something so strong
Keeps pulling me back here to you
It's a little curious thing, and I keep wondering
If just maybe you might feel it too*

*You're the only thing
The only one I'm thinking of Something's telling me this must be love*

For some crazy reason...
